

“Swachhta of Tourist Spots” organised at ICAR-CTRI, Rajahmundry on 01.10.2017

Tourist Spots of Rajamahendravaram (Rajahmundry) were selected for cleanliness campaign by ICAR-CTRI on 01.10.2017. Puskar Ghat of holy river Godavari, where holy dips by public during festival occasions was selected for cleanliness campaign. The staff of CTRI have cleaned the tourist spots and delivered the slogans regarding Swachh Bharat. The mass awareness programme was conducted on prevention of plastics & unwanted material in sacred river Godavari by safe guarding the purity of river and maintenance of rich cultural heritage of India. About 40-50 staff members have actively participated in this event. Thus, the programme was successful by involving all the staff members in ‘cleanliness campaign’ in spite of public holiday.

