

Training Programme on FCV tobacco field crop management: June 19-24, 2017

ICAR-CTRI is organizing a one week training programme on 'FCV Tobacco Field Crop Management' from 19-24 June, 2017. A total of 25 trainees from Andhra Pradesh and Karnataka has attended the training programme. The program was formally inaugurated by Dr. D. Damodar Reddy, Director of ICAR-CTRI, Rajahmundry in the fore noon of 19th June, 2017. All the Heads of the Divisions and scientists of ICAR-CTRI has attended the inaugural session. Dr. S. Kasturi Krishna, Course Director of the training programme welcomed all the participants and scientific staff of the institute and briefed the participants about the training programme, its objectives and schedule. She urged the participants to take active participation in the interaction with the resource persons of the training programme to make it success. Dr. D. Damodar Reddy appreciated the active participation of all the participants and briefed on FCV tobacco production matrix in India and urged the trainees to implement the knowledge gained by them on their farm and propagate it among farming community for effective management of tobacco crop.

